Friday 27 June, 2008

School of Dentistry
University of Athens
Greece

Dear Colleagues,

The president and the executive council of Academy of Operative Dentistry, European Section (AODES) are privileged to host the 2008 Annual Meeting of AODES in Greece. The meeting will take place in Athens, a European city that combines history, culture and entertainment. Our goal is to organize an outstanding scientific program, in the field of Operative Dentistry presented by some of the best clinicians and investigators in dentistry. The title of the meeting is "DIRECT vs. INDIRECT AESTHETIC RESTORATIONS: Materials, techniques and clinical performance". The scientific program will consist of presentations by keynote speakers and by poster presentations. In addition, a discussion will be organized on education of Operative/Conservative Dentistry in European Dental Schools. We are very pleased to invite you to the School of Dentistry in Athens University, for the 2008 AODES Meeting.

Prof. Dr. Bart Van Meerbeek

Bart Van Meerbeek obtained his DDS (1988) and Ph.D. (1993) at the Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium). Since 1995, he teaches Biomaterials Science at KULeuven, where he became Full Professor in 2005.

His primary research is related to the adhesion of restorative materials to tooth tissue, and has been published in more than 200 international journals and honoured with awards such as the triennial Robert Stock award (1996), the Biomedical Sciences Award of KULeuven (1998), the IADR Young Research Award (2000), and the Buonocore Memorial Lecturer (2003). Since 2004, he is (co-) editor-in-chief of the Journal of Adhesive Dentistry.

Dr. Didier Dietschi

Dr Didier Dietschi was licensed in 1984 and obtained his doctoral and Privat-Docent degrees in 1988 and 2004, respectively, at the University of Geneva, Switzerland.

He also received a PhD degree in 2003 at the University of ACTA, Netherlands. Following a 6-year period of full time teaching and research activity in Operative Dentistry and Periodontology, he started a part time private practice in Geneva, dedicated to aesthetic restorative dentistry. Dr. Dietschi has published more than 70 clinical and scientific papers and book chapters on adhesive and aesthetic restorations; he also co-authored the book "Adhesive Metal-free Restorations", edited in 1987 by Quintessence and translated in 7 languages. Dr Dietschi is lecturing internationally on adhesive and aesthetic Dentistry.

Assist. Prof. Dr. Efstratios Papazoglou

He graduated in 1989 from the Dental School, University of Athens, Greece. In 1991 he received a Certificate in Advanced Prosthodontics and a Master of Science from the Ohio State University, USA. From 1992-2000 he taught at the Ohio State University as an Assistant Professor. In 1999 he received a PhD in Oral Biology at the same University. Since 2002 he is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Operative Dentistry, University of Athens, Greece. He has lectured nationally and internationally and has numerous publications in refereed dental journals. He maintains a part-time private practice limited to aesthetic, prosthetic and implant dentistry.
